You speak, and every word you say I know is true, patiently I'm waiting for
You are the Vine that I am holding on to, patiently I'm waiting for
You are faithful when I'm not, Your love remains true, patiently I'm waiting for You are there with me in the night to see me through, patiently I'm waiting for
You are the One who's arms I'm running into, patiently I'm waiting for You are the reason that I live & breath, it's true, patiently I'm waiting for You took this old man as I was and made me new, patiently I'm waiting for
You will come charging on a white horse through the blue, patiently I'm waiting
